New Furniture! New Rugs!

Who wouldn't stop and admire a handsome piece of Furniture? All who are fond of cozy little homes take advantage of every one of our displays of newly bought Furniture. Artistic, meritorious, durable and seasonable are each aptly applicable to the new lot we're just now showing. Brighten up your home by buying something new.

Having just returned from the New York market, we are able to show you this week in our windows the only line of real Oriental Rugs made in this country and at the price of domestic rugs. These Rugs we buy direct of the manufacturer, thereby saving all duties and the cost of passing through two other hands. Besides, we can fully guarantee every Rug. Our line of Carpet-sized Rugs was never as complete as today. Call and let us show you.

We are going to be able to show you interesting things this coming Spring in House Furnishings as well as interesting prices, and to buy without looking at our stock will be a big mistake.

A. R. Wrayton of Boston arrived in the city last night on a business visit.

Both golf and skating are being indulged in at the Montpelier Country club.

See in another column the "menu" of the men's supper in the Universalist vestry.

T. G. Carswell and Henry Moore went to Northfield this afternoon on a business trip.

Mrs. John C. Mackie of Saranac, N. Y., arrived in the city this afternoon for a visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Perry went to St. Johnsbury this afternoon to visit friends for a few days.

The I. O. O. F. cribbage players will please take notice that they play this evening with the F. of A. team.

Miss Margaret Hinchey, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Fraser, returned today to her home in Hydeville.

The men of the Universalist church will serve supper in the vestry Wednesday evening, Jan. 31st, from 6 to 8. All are invited.

Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Fuller, formerly of this city but now of Burlington, are rejoicing over the birth yesterday of a son, Charles Robert.

Mrs. W. F. Shepard has one lot of trimmed hats at $1 and another lot for $2.50. There are a few $7 and $8 hats included in the lots.

Now it is time to have your pictures framed. Five thousand feet of picture moldings to close out at cost. At L. M. Williams' furniture store.

The ladies of Trinity church, Montpelier, will hold a rummage sale on the afternoons and evenings of Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 30th and 31st.

J. G. More left last night on a business trip to Quincy, Mass., in the interests of the firm of Baldwin & More, which he represents in this vicinity.

The forenoon sessions for beginners in roller-skating are enjoyed by many who prefer that time for learning to the more crowded afternoon and evening sessions.

There will be a meeting of the Barre Medical Society with Dr. J. W. Jackson Wednesday evening at 8.30. A paper on "Eczema" will be presented by Dr. Clement, with discussion afterward.

Daniel A. Perry went to Boston last night to attend to some business matters in connection with the Barre Granite and Quarry company. The Rev. W. A. Kinzie went down on the same matter earlier in the day.

Alderman Frank H. Burke has returned from a six weeks' trip through the West in the interests of the granite manufacturing firm of Burke Bros. With the exception of Mayor Barclay the city council will be complete again.

The woman recently arrested by Deputy Sheriff Camp in Waitsfield on the charge of adultery, Susan Johnson by name, was released from county jail on bail yesterday and went with her brother to Boston. The amount of the bail was $600.

Tom Sutor, who has been in Washington county jail since supreme court affirmed the verdict of Caledonia county court on his liquor case, was taken to the house of correction yesterday to serve a three-months' sentence for violation of the liquor law in Hardwick. Sheriff Winch of Caledonia county accompanied him.

Sheriff Baldwin of Wells River was in town today with four prisoners, on the way to the Orange county jail at Chelsea. The prisoners were handcuffed together and were not very talkative, but one passed out the information that his arrest was due to "too much rum and a little disorder." The quartette with their keeper took dinner at Cay-hue's restaurant.

Miss Annie Parker, stenographer in the office of the secretary of the Quarry Workers' International union, has received a letter from Secretary McCarthy, stating that he had left California, where he went a few weeks ago to look after the interests of the union, and that he will return to Barre about the middle of the last of February. Secretary McCarthy writes that he will visit various branches on the trip East.

Among the notable performances of the older men of Barre to be recorded is the pedestrian trip of Luther E. Wood yesterday when he walked from his home, three miles out on the West Hill, to this city and back again, after taking dinner here. It was partly a birthday celebration as Mr. Wood was 88 years of age yesterday. In spite of his years he is a sprightly man, and such jaunts are of common occurrence with him. Recently he took a railroad trip to points in Massachusetts, going alone.

Fatherly Solitude.

"Queer people drift into hotels sometimes," said Clerk Rich of the Grand Hotel, last night. "A few months ago an old farmer and his son spent two or three days here. The first evening they were not together, but the second night the old man remained in and rested, the young fellow going out alone. The old fellow sat around the office and read and dozed. About 11 o'clock he began anxiously looking at the clock, and by 11.30 was worrying about the non-appearance of his son. 'Don't suppose it would do any good to go out and look for him,' he pondered. 'Guess I'll set up a while yet.' 'He kept watch until 12.30 o'clock, then lost patience. 'By jingo! he said, 'I'm going to bed. And if I was you I wouldn't set up for him no longer. Close up the place and let him sleep out somewhere and he'll learn to come in in time!'"—San Francisco Call.

At the regular meeting of the Rathbone Sisters it is expected company will be present from Groton. Let all members come that can.

The local lodge K. of P. expects to entertain the district meeting of that order sometime in February. Definite arrangements have not yet been made.

We see the name of L. B. Adams appears on the bills as one of the floor managers at the Old and Young Folk's Ball in Winoski Hotel hall, February 2nd.

Mrs. Lucinda Northrop is improving from her dislocated shoulder slowly, but is doing her own work. She is seventy-four years old and displays a great amount of spirit.

Rev. C. J. Brown will not be present at his regular Thursday evening meeting, as he is in Derby attending preacher's meeting. However, the meeting is left in the care of an able substitute.

In the items of last week Ephraim Pray's name appeared with that of E. A. Thomas, as commissioners of the late C. C. Rendrew's estate, which should have read, Asa Dutton and E. A. Thomas.

The second rank was administered on one candidate in Castle Hall, Monday evening. A banquet was served. It is expected the third rank will be worked next Monday evening. Let the brothers all be present.

We hope that no one will undertake to referee another basketball game in this town if they are in the intoxicated condition of a man who recently undertook to fill that position but succeeded in disturbing the peace instead. Perhaps this is not the end.

Charlie George sustained an injury recently which occurred between two serious points. The canthook he was using was struck by a rolling log, which drove the handle back and upward striking Mr. George on the bone, between the right eye and temple. This happened about two weeks ago, and he now has a very black eye.

CHELSEA.

Do Not Find Fault With Your Dressmaker.

She cannot make dresses to look stylish over ill-shaped Corsets. If she has the courage she will tell you so. The R. & G. Corset Company were the originators of the Straight Front Corsets. Now they have a greater improvement in the way of the TAPERING WAIST CORSET. Others are imitators of these Corsets. Take our advice. Get the ones marked R. & G. Then you are sure that you have the latest Corset shape.

R. & G. Tapering Waist Corset R. & G. Tapering Waist Corset Three Specials to Ask For

There is a fit about these Corsets that others do not have. It's being steam molded that makes them different. This is the Corset that we have had to keep customers waiting for until our new invoice today.

These Tapering Waist Corsets come in two shapes—one for slender ladies, the other to fit stout or large ladies. Either shape at $1.00 per pair.

Tapering Waist Corsets in the $1.50 grade are of a little finer materials for select trade.

Either style has a full set of attached Hose Supporters.

If this is not the slickest feeling Corset that you ever laced up, bring it back and get your money.

This cut gives you a side view of this new Corset.

Take these Corsets home on memorandum and see what they are like.

One is another lot of Handkerchiefs. These are the balance of our store decorations. All are slightly soiled. Now at 15c per dozen.

Another is a lot of Ladies' White Waists, all of them new in style—is fact a part have wide embroidered fronts and the same for long cuffs. Others are heavily trimmed. Would be sold later in the season from $1.35 to $1.50. Now, as trade-getters, at $1.19 each.

Another is a lot of new White Skirts that we have put out to do a little extra advertising with. These Skirts are of our best make, not sale Skirts. Made full and well. Now at 95c. (Compare with $1.25 Skirts, or even more.)

Are You Getting Your Share of Those Silk Warped Eoliennes at 25c?

CHECK THE COLD

You cannot figure on the results of a cold if it's let run its course. But you can figure on results if you take Our Cold Cure at the start—your cold will depart quickly.

We don't understand why anybody would let a cold develop into serious, perhaps fatal disease, when it can be so easily eliminated from the system. Keep a package of Our Cold Cure on hand. You'll not suffer the lung congestion, coughs and other troubles that result from colds, as you have in past winters. We warrant it. Price, 25c.
